The cookworks

13 x 30 minutes > Cooking Show

“Cooking asks so little of us and gives us so much in return. It’s such a rewarding experience sharing food prepared with your own hands and, with a few simple techniques, any meal can be transformed into something special. So grab an apron and follow me. We’re heading back to the kitchen!”

Donna Dooher
Chef and Show Host

Set in the working kitchen of an actual cooking school, The Cookworks features witty and engaging Chef Donna Dooher leading teams of students in hands-on cooking instruction that entertains and inspires. Each episode begins with host Donna Dooher and resident bartender Gordon Hannah welcoming a fresh mix of students to The Cookworks. The group is divided into teams and set free on a culinary journey to prepare their dishes, guided by Donna’s irreverent wit and flawless technique.

Shot on a mixed media canvas of 35mm film and video, The Cookworks features lush colors, inventive graphics and music that takes culinary instruction to a higher level.

A known leader in the culinary field, Donna is co-owner of a celebrated restaurant, author of a best-selling cookbook and owner of a hands-on cooking school. Her charismatic presence on screen and off ensures that her students will discover the untapped potential of their inner chef, while viewers will be drawn in to the unique experience that is The Cookworks.
