THE FAMILY RESTAURANT

6 x 30'

The Family Restaurant is an exciting, real-life series that follows an exuberant and very Greek family who own and operate a small empire of three Greek restaurants. How do you survive in the restaurant business and maintain family harmony at the same time—without going crazy? Simple: you allow yourself to go just a little crazy, from time to time. Come to The Family Restaurant for a hearty serving of roast lamb and ouzo, vine-covered ceilings and belly dancers, table dancing and plate smashing, delivered with a healthy sprinkling of pride, ego, and passion.

Yianni Psalios

The patriarch of the family, and a legend in the community. Ambitious, macho, opinionated, generous, commanding, centre-of-everything and above all focused on caring for his family, Yianni is the head, and always the final word, in everything. By opening a third restaurant, "The Souvla," Yianni defies the odds—and his family—to create a "home away from home" for himself and his Greek buddies.

Kally Psalios

Yianni's wife and business partner. Ten years younger than her husband, Kally manages the flagship restaurant in the triumvirate, "The Koutouki Taverna," and is master of her domain. More serious and protective than Yianni, she works alongside head chef Chris St. Denis, her soon-to-be son-in-law. Kally longs for just a single day off and—even more elusive—time alone with Yianni.

Theo Psalios

Yianni's young, hunky, Lothario son, and head chef and co-owner of the second restaurant in the empire, "The Koutouki Ouzeri." A softie at heart with stars in his eyes, Theo's primary struggle is to escape from under his father's larger-than-life shadow.

Dina Psalios

The daughter who loathes the restaurant business and longs to be a make-up artist—a dream the rest of the family doesn't take seriously. To raise money for make-up school in L.A., Dina waitresses five nights a week at the Taverna, working alongside her mother and fiancé. Given that she intends a life away from all things "restaurant," and that she's sworn to never marry a restaurateur, where does this leave her future with Chris?

Chris St. Denis

Head chef at the Taverna and Dina's fiancé, Chris is a nice WASPish young man who could not possibly be more in love with all things Greek! He's close friends with Theo and idolizes his mentor Yianni. Dina openly disdains "Greek" men, yet Chris seems destined to become just that.
